

The Canterville Ghost

Thursday 27th October 2022

11am & 2pm

Kiplin Hall
& Gardens

Enjoy comedy and chills in this original adaptation of the charming Oscar Wilde tale, written especially for children and young families. This one-man show, featuring much audience participation, is guaranteed to raise more than just a ghost of a smile!

Philip Jennings stars in a show that's written by Jonathan Goodwin, and directed by Gary Archer, from "Don't Go into the Cellar".

After the 75 minute show, discover more spooky thrills exploring Crowe's Wood Halloween Trail with exclusive access on a day when Kiplin is closed to the rest of the public.

Performance at 11am (doors 10:30am)
with time to explore the trail until 2pm

Performance at 2pm (doors 1:30pm)
with time to explore the trail until 5pm.

Performances will take place indoors with seating provided. The Tea Room and Hall will be closed during the event. Light refreshments will be on sale.

Outdoor picnic facilities and toilets will be available. (We recommend bringing a torch to the afternoon performance as dusk approaches!)

BOOKING ESSENTIAL £10 per person
