

Prime Areas of Learning

Communication & Language	Physical Development	Personal, Social & Emotional Development
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Enjoy listening to non-fiction booksDevelop familiarity with repeated readslearn some topic vocabularyExperiment with taught vocabularyListen attentively when interestedEnjoy poems and songs	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Throw, catch and kick ballsPull themselves up on climbing equipmentLarge scale mark-makingUse squeezy bottlesCan use one handed tools and equipment	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Relationships: trust in adults, play positively with supportBehaviour: follow a most rules and boundaries; understand a greater range of emotions; wait for their turn; know actions have consequencesIndependence: respect resources; start to verbalise learning while playing

Specific Areas of Learning

Literacy	Mathematics	Understanding the World	Expressive Arts & Design
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Talk through a known book with supportDeveloping awareness that print carries meaningMarks resemble lettersAct out familiar storiesRecall information about charactersAnswers literal retrieval questionsString letters together that resemble words	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Start to subitiseCount forwards and backwards to 3.Use some number language spontaneouslyMatches and compares numbers using objectsCount up to 5 jobsKnow that the final number of objects is the totalSeparates 3 or 4 objects in different ways	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Know animals have different habitatsName features of their environmentKnow there are different types of weatherUse items in small world correctlyInvestigate colour changesTalk about things that happened in the past	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Combine lines to make shapesAnticipates changes in musicUse shapes to create familiar objects (e.g. a house)Begin to mix water and powder paintDescribes music (happy / sad)